Terms of Enrolment

You must enrol BEFORE the start of term so that we know how many people to expect!

St Martins does not refund payments, except in the following cases:

- A. If a workshop is cancelled by St Martins. In this case, the member will be offered one of the following options - a transfer to another workshop, a credit note for a workshop in a following term or a full refund.
- B. If a withdrawal is made due to illness within the first two workshops. A doctor's certificate must be presented and a refund will be made minus a $30 cancellation charge.
- C. If it is agreed upon by both parties that the member is participating in a trial workshop. For more information regarding this please contact the office.

You may transfer classes in the first two weeks of term only, if there is space in the class.

St Martins does not accept responsibility for any personal property left at the centre.

St Martins workshops have a no nut policy but do not guarantee a nut free environment. Please don't bring nuts to class.

All personal information that you give to St Martins, including the information on this form is used in accordance with our privacy policy. You can view this policy on our website here or contact us if you would like a copy sent to you.

Image and Voice Permissions

St Martins sometimes films workshops, rehearsals and showings. These images and recordings may be used by St Martins for publicity, on our website and in our brochures.

Do you give permission for the participant to be filmed, photographed or recorded?

--None--

Once you have completed this form, please return it to our Access Officer, Katrine Gabb.
